In no event shall Landlord be liable for interruption to Tenant's business or for damage to or replacement or repair of Tenant's personal property, including inventory, fixtures, floor coverings, furniture and other property removable by Tenant under the provisions of this Lease or to Tenant's Leasehold improvements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, or anything contained herein to the contrary, if the Leased Premises are (a) rendered wholly untenable or (b) damaged as a result of any cause which is not wholly covered by Landlord's insurance or (c) damaged in whole or in part during the last six months of the term, or (d) if the building of which the Leased Premises are a part is damaged to the extent of fifty percent or more of the floor area thereof, then in any of such events, Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving to Tenant notice within ninety days after the occurrence of such event and neither party shall be obligated to the other for repairs or other matters thereafter occurring.
- B. - C. No damages or destruction to the Leased Premises which shall not prevent Tenant from continuing the use of the Leased Premises as a magistrate's court and related offices shall allow Tenant to surrender possession of the Leased Premises nor effect Tenant's liability for the payment of rent or any other covenant herein contained, except as may be specifically provided in this Lease.

25. Hazardous Materials. (a) Except for products reasonably necessary and customarily associated with the use of the premises, Tenant shall not use, generate, manufacture, produce, store, release, discharge or dispose of on, in or under the premises or the property of which the premises are a part or transport to or from the premises or the property, any hazardous materials as defined below, or allow any other person or entity to do so.

(c) Tenant shall protect, indemnify and hold harmless Landlord, its directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assigns from and against any and all loss, damage, cost, expense or liability including attorney's fees and costs directly or indirectly out of or attributable to Tenant's failure to comply with this section. This indemnity shall survive termination or cancellation of this Lease for any reason.

(d) "Hazardous materials" shall mean any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, hazardous wastes, toxic substances or related materials, including, without limitation, any substances defined as or included in the definition of "hazardous substances", "hazardous wastes", "hazardous materials" or "toxic substances", under any applicable federal or state laws or regulations.

26. Default.

- A. If Tenant defaults in fulfilling any of the covenants of this Lease, Landlord shall give Tenant notice thereof. If such default involves nonpayment of rent or other sums due hereunder or the imposition of a lien against the Leased Premises and if such default is not remedied within ten days following such notice, all of Tenant's rights under this Lease shall terminate and Tenant shall then quit and surrender the Leased Premises to Landlord, but Tenant shall continue liable for the payment of rent and other sums due hereunder, subject to Landlord using its best efforts to relet the Leased Premises as soon as practical and thereby mitigating any losses resulting from Tenant's default.

If such default does not involve nonpayment of rent or other sums due hereunder or the imposition of a lien against the Leased Premises and if such default is not remedied within thirty days following such notice, all of Tenant's rights under this Lease shall terminate and Tenant shall then quit and surrender the Leased Premises to Landlord, but Tenant shall continue liable for the payment of rent and other sums due hereunder. Except for nonpayment of rent or other sums due hereunder or the imposition of a lien against the Leased Premises, if the nature of the default is such that it cannot reasonably be cured within said period of thirty days, but work thereon shall be commenced within said period and diligently prosecuted to completion, Tenant's rights under this Lease shall not terminate as a result of such default.

- B. If Tenant's rights under this Lease shall have been terminated, Landlord may immediately, or at any time thereafter, re-enter the Leased Premises and remove all persons and all or any property therefrom, by any suitable action or proceeding at law, or otherwise, without being liable for any prosecution therefore or damages therefrom, and repossess and enjoy the Leased Premises, together with all additions, alterations and improvements, and Landlord may, at Landlord's option, repair, alter, remodel and/or change the character of the Leased Premises as Landlord may deem fit. Landlord may relet the Leased Premises or any part or parts thereof, as the agent of Tenant or otherwise, for such term (which may be greater or less than the period which would have otherwise constituted the balance of the term of this Lease) and on such conditions as Landlord, in its uncontrolled discretion, may determine and may collect and receive the rents therefore, and any sums received by Landlord on a reletting in excess of the rental due under this Lease shall belong to the Landlord. Landlord shall in no way be responsible or liable for any failure to relet the Leased Premises or any other part thereof, or for any failure to collect any rent due upon any such reletting. The exercise by Landlord of any right granted in this sub-paragraph shall not relieve Tenant from the obligation to make all rental payments, and to fulfill all other covenants required by this Lease, at the time and in the manner provided herein. Provided, however, Landlord shall use its best efforts to relet the premises as soon as practical and to otherwise mitigate any losses for which Tenant could be held liable under the terms herein and/or under statutory or case law in South Carolina.

- C. The maintenance of any action or proceeding to recover possession of the Leased Premises, or any installment or installments of rent or any other monies that may be due or become due from Tenant to Landlord, shall not preclude Landlord from thereafter instituting and maintaining subsequent actions or proceedings for the recovery of possession of the Leased Premises or of any subsequent installment or installments of rent, or any other monies that may be due or become due from Tenant. Any entry or reentry by Landlord shall not be deemed to absolve or discharge Tenant from liability hereunder.
- D. In the event of a breach by Tenant of any of the covenants or provisions hereof, Landlord shall have, in addition to any other remedies which it may have, the right to invoke any remedy allowed at law or in equity to enforce Landlord's rights or any of them as if re-entry and other remedies were not herein provided for.
- E. If Tenant shall at any time be in default hereunder and following reasonable efforts by Landlord to resolve with Tenant such matters constituting the default it then becomes necessary for Landlord to engage attorneys to enforce Landlord's rights hereunder, the determination of such necessity to be in the sole discretion of Landlord, Tenant will reimburse Landlord for the attorney's fees.

27. Holding Over. In the event Tenant remains in possession of the Leased Premises after the expiration of this Lease and without the execution of a new lease, Tenant shall be deemed to be occupying said Leased Premises as a Tenant from month to month at a rental equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the rental herein provided for immediately prior to the expiration of the Lease, which rental shall be payable monthly, and otherwise subject to all of the conditions, provisions and obligations of this Lease in so far as the same are applicable to a month-to-month tenancy, and in no event shall there be any renewal of this Lease by operation of law.

28. Landlord's Right of Entry. Landlord and/or Landlord's agents or employees may enter the Leased Premises at all reasonable hours to examine them, to show them to persons wishing to rent or purchase them, or to make repairs, additions or other work, and no compensation shall be asked or claim made by Tenant by reason of any inconvenience resulting therefrom.

29. Non-Liability of Landlord. Landlord shall not be liable for loss of or damage to any property at any time located in or about the Leased Premises, whether or not Tenant is the owner thereof, unless such loss or damage is the direct result of the negligence of Landlord, its agents or employees. Landlord shall be under no liability to Tenant on account of any discontinuance of heat, electricity, sewer service, water, air conditioning, sprinkler, gas and/or other utility, convenience, service or facility, if such discontinuance is caused by factors outside Landlord's control.

30. Sale or Transfer of Landlord's Interest. In the event of the sale, assignment or transfer by Landlord of Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises, Landlord shall thereupon be released and discharged from all covenants and obligations of the Landlord thereafter occurring, and Tenant agrees to look solely to such successor in interest of Landlord for performance of such obligations. All covenants and obligations of Landlord shall run with the land and be binding upon each new owner or successor for the time being of the Leased Premises. Landlord's assignment of the Lease or of any or all of Landlord's rights herein shall in no manner affect Tenant's obligations hereunder. Tenant shall thereafter look to such assignee, as Landlord, provided Tenant has first received written notice of such assignment of Landlord's interest.

31. Assignment or Subletting by Tenant. Tenant may not assign or encumber this Lease or Sublet all or any part of the Leased Premises, nor may this Lease be assigned or encumbered or the Leased Premises sublet by operation of law, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall be in the sole discretion of Landlord. In the event Landlord does so consent, Tenant shall not be relieved or released from its liability hereunder. The proposed assignee or subtenant shall assume Tenant's obligations hereunder and deliver to Landlord an assumption agreement, in form satisfactory to Landlord, within five days after the effective date of the assignment, if such written consent is given by the Landlord. Consent by Landlord to any assignment, encumbrance, or subletting shall not constitute a waiver of the necessity for such consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting.

32. Subordination. This Lease and all leasehold rights hereunder shall be, become and remain subordinate to the lien of any mortgage or mortgages, or to the lien resulting from any other method of financing or refinancing, now or hereafter in force against the land and/or building of which the Leased Premises are a part. Upon the request of the Landlord, Tenant will subordinate Tenant's rights hereunder to the lien of any mortgage or mortgages, or to the lien resulting from any other method of financing or refinancing, now or hereafter in force against the land and/or building of which the Leased Premises are a part. Tenant, in case of foreclosure or sale pursuant to the terms of any such security instrument, agrees to attorn to the purchaser upon any such foreclosure or sale and recognize such purchaser as the Landlord under this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any mortgagee requests that this Lease be made superior, rather than subordinate, to any such mortgage, then upon request of Landlord, Tenant will execute and deliver any and all documents effectuating such priority.- Tenant agrees to execute any documents which may be required to effectuate the subordination or superiority and otherwise carry out Tenant's obligations under this paragraph, and failing to do so within ten days after written demand, does make, constitute and irrevocably appoint Landlord as Tenant's attorney in fact and in Tenant's name, place and stead so to do.

33. Estoppel Certificate. Within ten days after request therefore by Landlord or any mortgagee under a mortgage covering the Leased Premises, or if, upon any contract of sale, sale, assignment or other transfer of the Leased Premises by Landlord, an estoppel certificate shall be requested by Landlord, Tenant shall execute and deliver in recordable form a statement to any proposed mortgagee or other transferee, or to Landlord, certifying any facts that are then true with respect to this Lease, including, without limitation, that this Lease is in full force and effect, that Tenant has accepted and is presently occupying said Leased Premises, that Tenant has commenced the payment of rent, that said payments are current, that no default exists under the terms and provisions of said Lease, that there are no defenses or offsets to the Lease claimed by Tenant, and such other matters relating to the Lease as may be reasonably requested by Landlord.

34. Short Form Lease. It is understood and agreed that the terms of this Lease with respect to the term of the Lease and a description of the property may be set forth in a Memorandum of Lease of even date herewith, which said short form of Lease, if prepared, may be used for recording purposes to document the exact commencement and termination dates of the Lease. The party recording such form shall pay all recording costs, including documentary stamp tax, incurred in connection therewith.

35. Surrender of Leased Premises. Tenant shall surrender to Landlord the Leased Premises at the expiration of the term hereof, or any extension thereof, or upon termination by virtue of Tenant's default, in good and broom clean condition, reasonable wear and tear and loss by fire or other casualty covered by insurance payable to Landlord excepted.

37. Non-Waiver Provision. The failure of Landlord or Tenant to insist upon a strict performance of any of the terms, conditions and covenants herein shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any rights or remedies that Landlord or Tenant may have and shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach or default in the terms, conditions and covenants herein contained, except as may be expressly waived in writing.

38. Severability. If any term, condition or provision of the Lease, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall, to any extent be held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder hereof and the application of such term, provision or condition to persons or circumstances other than those as to whom or what it shall be held invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and this agreement and all of the terms, provisions and conditions hereof shall, in all other respects, continue to be effective and to be complied with to the full extent permitted my law.

39. Rules and Regulations. Landlord shall have the right to promulgate rules and regulations for the safety, care, and cleanliness of the premises, the building in which the Leased Premises are located, including all common areas, or for the preservation of good order, and the right from time to time to promulgate amendments and additional rules in relation thereto. On delivery of a copy of such rules and regulations to Tenant, Tenant shall comply with the rules and regulations and any subsequent amendments thereto, and a violation of any of them shall constitute a default by Tenant under this Lease. If there is a conflict between the rules and regulations and any other provisions of this Lease, the provisions of this Lease shall prevail.

40. Successors and Assigns and Inclusiveness of Terms. The covenants, conditions and agreements contained in this Lease shall bind and inure to the benefit of Landlord and Tenant and their respective legal representatives, successors and, except as otherwise provided in this Lease, their assigns. Whenever Landlord and Tenant are herein referred to, such reference shall be construed as applying to their respective successors in interest and assigns and, where the content requires or admits, to their agents, employees, invitees, and similar representatives. 41. Third Party Beneficiary. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed so as to confer upon any other party the rights of third party beneficiary (except rights contained herein for the benefit of a mortgagee).

42. Controlling Law. The laws of the State of South Carolina shall govern the validity, construction, performance, interpretation and enforcement of this Lease.

43. Quiet Enjoyment. Landlord covenants that Tenant, on the performance of the terms and conditions of this Lease, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Leased Premises for the term aforesaid, subject, however, to the exceptions, reservations and conditions of this Lease.

44. Captions. The captions in this Lease are for convenience only, are not a part of this Lease and do not in any way limit or amplify the terms and provisions of this Lease.

45. Attorney's Fees. If either party becomes a party to any litigation concerning this Lease, the premises, or the building or other improvements in which the premises are located, by reason of any act or omission of the other party or its authorized representatives, the party that causes the other party to become involved in the litigation shall be liable to that party for reasonable attorney's fees and court costs incurred by it in the litigation. If either party commences an action against the other party arising out of or in connection with this Lease, the prevailing party shall be entitled to have and recover from the losing party reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit including fees and costs of appeal.
